MARKET WAS UNSETTLED But Trading Encompassed an Unusua Array of Issues.

New York, Jan. 29.—Stocks were in demand on the resumption of business today, absence of untoward events over the holiday prompting further short covering. Trading was not especial-ly active, but broad enough to encompass an unusual array of issues. The strength of various industrials and equipments included within the several groups of war and semi-war issues indicated that recent advices from abroad had given very little impetus to peace possibilities.

Domestic developments were encouraging in affording further relief to transportation conditions and a visible reduction of the difficulties re-sulting from fuel shortage. Proposed amendments to the impending railway bill also received favorable consider

DANNY MURPHY AND COLLINS | ternational end New York State

Team During 1918. President James T. Collins of the ew Haven baseball club does not propose to "sit tight" and await the part from the "watchful waiting" next meeting of the Eastern league policy. Both Collins and Murphy before making preliminary plans for realize the full meaning of the word the 1918 scason. Instead, Collins will preparedness and what it means to get journey to Norwich next Sunday and the jump on the other fellows. Contime during the winter to his cafe business while Collins has been filling the role of a government inspector at the Mariin plant in New Haven. Little or no correspondence has passed between the two during the off-season which

Regardless of what the future may

Marlin plant in New Haven. Little or no correspondence has passed between the two during the off-season which means that here may be some interesting developments at the coming conference.

Latest reports from the baseball rialto indicate that the Eastern will make good its decision tootart the season, regardless of whether the international or New York state league survive. But the makeup of the sate comple of these couple of the cities in the wacated territory if they continue, then the Eastern may seek a couple of the cities in the wacated territory if they continue, then the Eastern will be made up from other available cities.

It is a pretty well established fact that New Haven, Bridgeport, New Take Marking Daner, Lee Cullop and others at the Federal league collapse. It has been a foregome that Pratt was slated to York, and Plank's name we time. The loss of these stars, who played such an important part in the winning of the championship last year, will prove a big handicap. Murphy, however, is not worrying and believes he can fill the gap in the same ment is that he will have enough men on hand to compose the nucleus of a strong team. The outfield, rated as three-year-old southpaw, showed last year that he biggest problem will be the reconstruction of a pitching that the biggest problem will be the reconstruction of a pitching that New Haven will be without them next season.

In view of the probability that Jack

Sox. President Frazee has refused to discuss the matter. Carrigan retired a year ago after vainly demanding a 225,000 salary. It was said recently that Carrigan had grown weary of the banking business up in Matra and he wanted to come had to be beached. wanted to come back to baseball. There isn't a doubt that Carrigan would help the Red Sox immeasurably.

but perhaps his figures would be en-tirely too high.

this year, a report has originated in Boston that William Carrigan will re-turn to the management of the Red

Baseman Del Pratt and Pitcher Eddie Plank, in exchange for Catcher Nunamaker, Pitchers Shocker and Cullop, Infielders Joe Gedeon and Fritz Maisel, of the Yankees, and a cash consideration

It has been a foregone conclusion that Pratt was slated to go to New York, and Plank's name was not mentioned in the trade until the announc-ment was made yesterday by Col-

In the trade the Yankees get a much needed second baseman and a forty-three-year-old southpaw, pitcher, who showed last year that he still is of major league calibre for a lot of sup-erfluous talent. The only man the Yanks are apt to miss of the five they have given up for Pratt and Plank is Urban Shocker, the useful spitballer. Shocker showed last year in the American league that he is the stuff to be an get by in major league company if he takes care of himself. This he did not do last year.

Leslie Nunamaker, veteran catcher, will not be missed except as a pinen-hitter. His catching last year was bad, and as the Yanks have Walters, Alexander and Ruel, all of whom are

Nick Cullop came to the Yankees from the Federal league and pitched fair ball two years ago. Last season he was very erratic and of little use. As for Gedeon and Maisel, while there may be some regret at the passing of the former, who was ill most of last year and unable to show at his best, the latter has had every chance and

If Maisel were not such a base runner he would have been released long ago. He has never fitted in anywhere satisfactorily in the Yankee infield. Providing Pratt plays any kind of ball next summer the Yankees will come out ahead on the deal.

Eddie Plank is apt to win a few games for the Yankees next summer if pitched about once a week. Plank however, can hardly be considered seriously as timber from which to build a champicuship ball dub. Miracle man though he is, the Gettysburg veteran cannot last much longer in the game and is hardly going to win a pennant for the Yankees this year.

All things considered, the New York club has done very well. It got something it needed for a lot of things it couldn't use.

These two New York stars of the ghtweight division, Johnny Dundee, These two New York stars of the lightweight division, Johnny Dundee, the rugged Italian fighter, and Irish Patsy Cline, the clever boxer, are going to have it out in a twenty-round battle to a decision on the night of Feb. 12. The scrap will be fought at the big Lousiana Auditorium at New Orleans. Fight Promoter Dominick Torterich having at last been successful in bringing them together over the long-distance route by offering a large percentuge of the gross receipts for the men to battle for. This will be their second meeting, their previous go being a tenround no-decision bout here last October.
